Tomball Police Department Employees Honored at Annual Awards Dinner

On Saturday, December 5, 2009, Tomball Police Department employees and family members gathered for our annual awards dinner. This was a wonderful event made possible thanks to the hard work and dedication of community volunteers who are members of our Volunteers in Police Service program.

In addition to great food, fellowship, and fun, I had the honor of recognizing the following employees and volunteer for their outstanding and dedicated service to the police department and community at-large:

ROOKIE OF THE YEAR – Officer Stephen Tucker received this award for his consistent demonstration of exceptional competency and job performance ability within his first two years of employment.

OFFICER OF THE YEAR – Officer/Detective Albert Chambers received this award for his significant, consistent, and lasting contributions to the department and its public safety mission to protect and serve the community.

SUPERVISOR OF THE YEAR – Corporal Jimmy Harral received this award for demonstrating exceptional professional competency and a dedicated commitment to both the department and to subordinates under his supervision.

WAYNE STOVALL POLICE SERVICE AWARD – Sergeant Rebecca Carlisle received this award for unselfishly placing service above self in her work activities, which directly supported the community and bettered the quality of life for our citizens.

GEORGE OLIN POLICE LEADERSHIP AWARD – Lieutenant Anthony Solomon received this award for his ability of demonstrate exceptional leadership attributes of loyalty, honesty, integrity, professionalism, and ethical conduct.

CIVILIAN OF THE YEAR – Records Specialist Janet Barcelona received this award for significant, consistent and lasting contributions to the department, its members, and to the department’s mission to protect and serve the community.

POLICE VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR – Kelly Hill received this award for unselfishly demonstrating a significant volunteer commitment to the department through her time, talent, presence, and service.
