Tomball appoints Glenn Windsor as new Finance Director

Tomball, TX—The City of Tomball announces the appointment of Glenn Windsor as Finance Director, effective January 11, 2010. Windsor will assume the role created by the resignation of the former Finance Director, Monica Kohlenberg.

Glenn Windsor

Windsor formerly served as the Director of Finance for the City of Deer Park, TX, a position which he held for twenty four years. Prior to his service in Deer Park, Windsor worked as a staff auditor for Brammer, Begnaud & Lattimore in Port Arthur, TX.

Windsor graduated from Lamar University with a Bachelor's of Business Administration in both Accounting and Marketing. Currently Windsor is a Certified Public Accountant. Previously, he held certifications as a Government Finance Officer and a Registered Texas Assessor-Collector. Windsor is also currently preparing for the Certified Fraud Examiner's Exam.

"Tomball is very fortunate to be able to hire a Finance Director of Mr. Windsor's caliber," said Assistant City Manager Christal Kliever. "Windsor brings a level of experience and training that will aid the City of Tomball as it continues to grow and prosper."
