City of Tomball's Re-opening of MLK Jr. Park

On Saturday, January 15, 2011, at 11:30 AM, the City of Tomball will hold a re-opening ceremony for its MLK, Jr. Park. The park, originally dedicated by the City in 1998, has been improved and updated with new equipment. The improvements were made possible through donations received by the City of Tomball. At the same time, Memorial Trees planted at MLK Jr. Park will also be dedicated.

The re-opening of MLK Jr. Park is open to all who wish to attend. Mayor Fagan and Council would like to encourage all who are available to help the City celebrate this special event. H.E.B will be providing snacks for those in attendance, and all are welcome to come enjoy the new playground equipment.

On Sunday, January 16, 2011 at 2:00 PM, Mayor Fagan and City Council will be dedicating the Memorial Trees located at the Historic Tomball Depot.
